Annual Day 2016

The Goan wing is proud to organize our first Annual day to be held on Saturday, 7th May 2016 at 5.30pm at ISC hall Darsait.

It will be a day of cultural performances by some of our very own Goan prominent artists. The talented Goan musicians will play instrumental music. The budding children will sing and Dance on Goan Music and our Goan wing youth will be performing a role playing act cum dance with more entertainment and music for the evening in the presence of distinguished guests and invitees.

The Goan wing will also acknowledge Goans who have excelled in various fields and award them for their outstanding achievements. The Event will also be witnessed by other dignities and ISC officials.

The Goan wing has put in special efforts to send invitations to eminent personalities, among the special invitees from Oman we are proud to inform you that H.E. Shri Indra Mani Pandey (Ambassador of India to Oman) has consented to be the chief guest for the evening and grace the event. The Event will also be witnessed by other dignities and ISC officials

We are also pleased to have the launch of the book 'Ubuntu: The Spirit of Humanity', Written by Ms. Helen Sayers, based on an ancient African code of ethics.

Ms. Helen Sayers is lead trainer at Oasis Life-Skills Training Services, and director of the company's social responsibility programme - based in Oman.
